

September Open-Ended Question
Math for Standards
6 points

Name _____

Date _____

Solve the following problem then explain what you did and why you did it. In other words, provide an explanation for your solution.

A bat ate a total of 1050 dragon flies on four consecutive nights. Each night she ate 25 more than on the night before. How many did she eat each night?